

AISC Erector Certification Fee Schedule

Effective January 1, 2009

	Initial / Full	Annual
Certified Steel Erector	$4,725	$3,400
Advanced Certified Steel Erector	$5,800	$4,075

Additional Fees and Information
Pre-assessment (Optional) The pre-assessment is conducted to assist a company considering AISC Certification in determining the implementation status of their quality management system.		$1,800
Re-Audit Applicable when visit to additional operating field site is required to determine implementation of CARs.		$2,000
Rescheduled Audit Applicable if audit is cancelled due to auditee, after auditee has agreed to the audit date(s).		$1,800
Expedited Initial Audit Once your documentation audit is complete, Quality Management Company, LLC pledges to have an onsite auditor at your office facility and operating field site within three weeks. If expediting is not possible due to auditor schedule limitations, we will let you know at the time of your request. In the event that QMC is not successful in having the onsite audit conducted in the time promised, all expediting fees are returned to the auditee in full.		$3,500
Administrative Fee If applicant does not pass administrative review, original payment less $300 is returned to applicant.		$300
Documentation Audit Fee If applicant does not pass documentation review, original payment less $1,800 is returned to applicant.		$1,800

- The fees above include $950 for the Registration Fee plus the Audit fee and normal travel expenses.
- Fees are based on evaluation of one office facility and one operating field site. Site visits requiring more than two hours drive from the office location will be charged an additional $1200 / day.
- The AISC Certification Program operates on a three-year cycle. Fees listed under "Initial / Full" are applicable on the initial audit and the first year's audit of each three-year cycle. "Annual" fees are applicable on the 2nd and 3rd years of each cycle.
- Fees are applicable within the 48 contiguous United States. Fees for Certification of organizations outside the Continental United States will be furnished upon request.